Provision Market.

Our different Markets, and the principal Meat shops for the past week have exhibited a very fair supply of good Beef, Veal, Mutton and the usual meats. Washing-ton market, to day, will show off some beef of a superior constitute. quality.

Veal is so plenty as to be almost a drug, selling by the curcase at 6 cents the pound. We noticed some young, or March Lumbs, that were very handsome for the season.

Petatoes and vegetables in abundance. Some early Sallad and Radisher at $1 the dozen bunches.

Miscellaneous Record.

TACKET SHIP H. HUDSON. Moore, for London. Will sail to-day.

Brig Androlus.—We stated on Wednesday that on the 3d inst. in 1: 139 30, 100 69 19, was passed the quarter deck and stern frame of a vessel psinted black with a red streak. This answers nearer to the description we have of the Androdus than anything we have yet seen. That brig zailest from Rochelle on the 23d of last reptember, for this port—Capt Ritchie commander, and John R. ckers first mate.

Balvage.—'n action for salvage in the Brit'sh Admiralty Court sgainst the Cumberland, of Boston, for services performed by some fishermen in the Channel, during a voyage from Bremen to New Orleans, in November last, a salvage of £50 was decreed, with casts. £30 has been previously tendered on the part of the vessel, and refused, £30 being demanded.

We learn from St Vincents, under date of Jan. 21st, that the U S aloop of war Preble was still at that port, detained by the very sever illness of her officers and crew. Her sailing master, Wm A Henry, and Midsh.pman Smith, of Salem, had died.—Capt Freeland had been very low, but was recovering. Lieut Miller had left in the Eric for the United States, Lieut M. was on the sick list. Passed Midshipman Fox was appointed Sailing Master in place of Henry, deceased. One hundred of the crew were sick and on shore; sixteen had died. The Proble went last fall, during the sickly season, to Bissan, on the coast of Africa, to relieve the inhabitants from an attack made on that place by the negroes. The officers and crew of the Preble were mostly Porthern men, as are all or nearly all these who have hitherto been ordered to the coast of Africa by the former Secretaries of the Navy, and hence the Tatal illness which prostrates so may of them. The cruise of the Preble was considered as up. The physicians recommended strongly hat her crew should not again, in their present feeble state of health, be credered to the coast.

Also at the door of the Saloon on Monday evening. Open at 14 to the Court, and the consequently, a wolfe prosseque would be entered in the columns of the Herald, was hardly believed, though 1 heard of Senators who took up the paper on that morning, and, after reading the paper of the account, observed to another Senator when the paper of the account, observed to another rumor about to-day that he had settled up, and that, consequently, a wolle prosseque would be entered in his case—but, on enquiry, I find that this is not the fact. He has not paid up the deficiency yet, though he may do so before his trial comes on.

Senator Benton, I learn, has instituted a criminal prosecution against ex-Governor Thomas, of Maryland, for libel, in relation to the publication which he has made respecting his wife and her relatives, including the Colonel. This promises to open afresh the whole concern, and subject it all to the legal researches which are so diligently prosecuted always in cases of this kind. What will be the result of it remains to be seen.

Adjournment of Senate -- Appointments -- Office Seekers-Mr. Dallas, &c &c. Washington, March 20, 1845.

The Senate adjourned sine die to-day at about half past 12 o'clock, P. M., after confirming a person named Gould as marshal of the Northern District of New York, and another named Bushe, as consul to Hong Kong, in the place of Prentiss and Shaler, whom they rejected yesterday for the Shaler, whom they rejected yesterday for the places. The Senate would have adjourned yesterday if it had not been that they wished to afford the President an opportunity to-day of filling the vacancies above named. Now that the Senate has adjourned, the scramble for office will shortly begin, and, as I am well-informed on this head, a thorough reformation in all the departments of gevernment, both here and elsewhere, will be made, but without regard to the dictation of either cliques or cabals in any quarter of the country. There are a very few office-hunters here now, except a few from New York and Philadelphia, but, I suppose, that those gentlemen will return to their respective homes by the evening train of cars, as they must have found out ere this, that personal application for office to President Polk, has very little effect upon him.—This, for some time yet, is as it should be.

I have just learned, from what I consider good authority, that Vanbrugh Livingston, of your city, is to receive the consulate at Rio Janeiro. It is said that he came here fortified with the recommendation of nearly all the sachems of old Tarmany, as well as with those of all the leading men of his party in New York. Independent of these considerations, his personal and family character have done much in making a favorable impression upon the mind of the President in his favor. He is in every way well qualified both by experience and education, to direct the commercial interests of this country at Rio.

Another of your leading men is also here. I upon the mind of the President in his tayor. He is in every way well qualified both by experience and education, to direct the commercial interests of this country at Rio.

Another of your leading men is also here. I mean Edmund S. Derry, Esq., the beau ideal or embodiment of the "young democracie." I don't suppose he is looking for office, as it sometimes happens a few men come here occasionally who want nothing like spoils.

Tom Lloyd, Surveyor of the port of Baltimore, committed some days ago a most egregious faux pas, which, it is probable, will cost him his office. He sent the President a horse worth $500 as a present, but as soon as the President discovered the donor to be an office-holder, he ordered the animal to be returned to the place from whence it came. Tylerism wont go down at the White House "no how you can fixit." Dr. Miller, second assistant Postmaster General, and brother-in-law to Mr. Tyler, will have to give way to Wm. Medill, Esq., of Lancaster county, Ohio.

I have been informed that the cause of Prentiss' rejection by the Senate, was that he and Edward Curus had bet on the result of the late Presidential election, and the Prentiss withdrew his money from the back, where the stakes were deposited, as soon ashe had found that Curtis was the winner. I do not of course give you this on any other authority than mother rumor.

You have received, before the, a copy of the House report upon the Zabriskie case, and a pretty piece of an expose of Executive figuring it present. Where was Capt. Tyler's proverbial good sense when he suffered himself to be used by the members of his central committee for such base purposes?—There is something else of a like character now on the tapis, which, when brought out, as it most certainly will be, will form an excellent appendix to Col. Zabriskie's case. It is said that Sam'l Overshine and J. Washington Tyson, received a conshine and J. Washington Tyson, received a conshine and J. Washington Tyson, received a conshine and J. Washington Tyson, received a constit
